Four Hurt In Mishap

Four persons were injured about 10:15 o'clock Sunday night as the result of a one-car crash 2 miles east of Canyon on the Palo Duro Highway.

Taken to Neblett Hospital for treatment were Kirk S. Trubench, 20, from Amarillo, driver; Sue Moore, 19, of Amarillo; J. B. Statts 17, of Amarillo and Dinia Kay Bond, 17, of 1212 Third Avenue, Canyon.

Highway Patrolman James Cadenhead said all four youths received multiple lacerations and bruises and Sue Moore received a broken hand. They were treated and released.

Cadenhead said the accident occurred when Trubench, while traveling east, attempted to pass another car and lost control of his vehicle. The car rolled over several times and came to rest in the road ditch.

An ambulance from LaGrone Funeral Home and the Emergency Unit of the city fire department answered the call to the wreck. City Fire Captain Joe Rice said LaGrone Funeral Home asked the fire department to assist with the accident.

Hull Quits City Post

Truett Hull Jr., Canyon City Attorney, handed in his resignation Monday night at the regular meeting of the Canyon city commission.

Hull will take over January 1 as criminal district attorney for Randall County.

Hull was appointed city attorney last December. Hull came to Canyon in 1952 as district manager of the Southwestern Public Service Company. He stayed with Southwestern until 1959 when he went to the University of Texas to study law.

Following his graduation from the University of Texas Law School in 1961, Hull returned to Canyon as an associate with Lair & Williams Law Firm in Canyon. He will also resign his position there in order to take the district attorney position.

Hull said that he wanted to compliment the city commissioners for their "...fine concept of the rule of law in municipal administration. It was a great pleasure to work with the commissioners and Bill York, the city manager," he said.

Resuscitator Revives Woman

Canyon fire department's new resuscitator got its first real test at 9 o'clock Friday night when it was used to revive Mrs. Jean Hargis, a waitress at the Big Kitchen Restaurant in Canyon.

Mrs. Hargis was found lying unconscious on her bed in her apartment over the restaurant with an open gas tap spewing heating gas near her face.

The Emergency Unit was called into action following the discovery of the unconscious woman by Lahonda Brock and Thelma McHanna, waitresses at the restaurant.

Members of the fire department's Emergency Unit, Dr. Charles Nester and a technician from Neblett Hospital, an ambulance from LaGrone Funeral Home, city manager (See REVIVES, Page 9)

A suggestion was made that government aid be secured for the proposed planning, but the commissioners said they would rather attend to their own problems with "home grown solutions."

At the recommendation of the city manager, the commission decided not to start a mandatory program of city street paving next year, but to leave it on a strictly voluntary basis. York said the present city street paving program is caught up and in good shape.

Number Is Important

The great increase of mail during the Christmas season points up the necessity of postal patrons having a number on their house in easy view of the mail carrier.

Many times during the heavy mailing period substitute carriers have to be used to deliver the mail. The regular carrier may be familiar with your location, but a substitute is at a loss without an identifying number.

For the same reasons, apartment units should be identified by number or letter, and the name of the tenant should be placed on the mail box.

Failure to meet these conditions often results in delay in delivery of mail and could cause mail to be returned to the sender if the addressee can not be found.

Commissioners decided that if private property owners get together and decided they wanted a voluntary paving program in their area, the city would try and work out something.

City attorney T.G. Hull Jr., sent a letter of resignation to the commission. It was read by Mayor Lowes to the commission which accepted the resignation. Hull was elected Randall County criminal district attorney.

Also in line with future planning, the city manager told the commissioners they should be considering the future possibility of another city water well to supplement present city water supplies.

Home Sought For Foreign Student Here

A Canyon home is being sought for a Foreign Exchange Student for the next school term which begins next fall, school officials announced this week.

High School Principal J. E. Miller said eligible families desiring to keep a student should make application. Names of two eligible families must be submitted to the American Field Service if an exchange student is to come here.

Anyone wishing to apply should contact Principal Miller.

Jeraldine Robertson models her new suit. She is standing alongside the loom she used in weaving the fabric herself. Her mother made the creation, which is valued at from $200 to $400.

WT Coed Finds Weaving Material Rewarding

Jeraldine Robertson probably is the best dressed girl on the West Texas State campus when she dons the spiffy new suit which she literally made herself.

Jeraldine, a sophomore from Dalhart, wove the wool material for her new suit on a loom in art class and her mother did the rest.

Miss Robertson, who is an English major and an art minor, estimates that the material alone for the new suit would run about $200 to $400 if purchased at retail prices.

The suit has 4 yards of material in it. Miss Robertson purchased 40 skeins of yarn for the weaving and this alone ran about $60. She bought the yarn here in Canyon at Dan's Store.

She described the yarn used as place concord and Gaelic.

She used 20 skeins of each type.

Her mother is an expert seamstress and made the material into the suit as soon as the weaving was done. Her instructor, Miss Claudia Neeley, praised Miss Robertson highly for the work she did at the loom.

"She did a fine job of controlling threads in the wool," Miss Neeley declared.

Miss Robertson not only is an outstanding weaver, she is an outstanding student and campus citizen.

She is going to school on the Opportunity Plan and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. She is chairman of the Building Decorations and Entertainment Committee of the Student Union Board. She will be a counsellor at Randall Hall after Christmas.

Area Nimrods Forming Club

Formation of a Randall County Sportsmen's Club was discussed last Friday morning at a meeting of sportsmen and government conservationists in the commissioners court room.

The group discussed the need for such a club in the area and whether it would be well received by area sportsmen and conservationists.

It was suggested that members of the group study the programs and organization of other sportsmen's clubs in the Panhandle and that a second meeting be held some time between Christmas and New Year to plan a presentation for a general meeting which would be open to the public. It was suggested that the general meeting be held in the third week of January with all sportsmen of the county welcome to participate.

Present at the called meeting were L. J. Witkowski, Canyon sporting boat and camp trailer dealer; Dr. R. C. Busted, head of the West Texas State College Biology Department and ardent bird dog man; John Brazzil, Randall County Agent; Stan McDonough, Texas Game and Fish Commission officer for Randall County and Bob Brown, refuge manager for the Buffalo Lake Federal Wildlife Refuge.

Mystery Accident Probed

Randall County Sheriff's deputies investigated Tuesday morning a report that a car had fallen into one of the canyons at Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

They found only an old wreck that had been in the canyon for about six months. A Braniff Airlines pilot flying over the canyon radioed Lubbock that he had sighted a white station wagon in a "seventy foot canyon, 2 miles west of the entrance to the state park." The pilot reported seeing "tracks in the snow" leading to the cliff's edge above the car, but Randall County Sheriff's deputies said there was no snow in the canyon at the time. They reported finding only the old wreck located in timber canyon.

Dirt A Project Problem

Canadian River Dam project may have a lot of dirt on its hands, figuratively speaking, of course.

M.L. DiVilbiss, engineer on the project, has been dickering with the county for permission to scatter the dirt up and down county road right of way. However, the dirt belongs to the contractor and DiVilbiss can give commissioners no assurance as to how much dirt they will get or where it might be scattered.

As of this week's meeting of the court, no decision had been made on whether to accept the dirt. A disposal place for some 30,000 yards currently is needed.

Commissioners authorized the sending of a letter to the Highway Department requesting appraisal on parcels 1, 2 and 3 on the South Loop right of way at Hollywood Road and the Expressway. About 17 acres is involved belonging to L.R. Vaughn, Stella Vaughn Bruce, H.N. Wheeler and E.P. Deavours.

Commissioners tabled some bids on desks for the office of Tommy Lair, county clerk.

Chamber Meeting Slated

Final plans will be made for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held in January as the chamber board meets next Monday night in the commissioners court room at the court house.

Members of the board will select a speaker for the banquet.

Also at the meeting winners in the chamber election for places on the board of directors will be announced. Friday is the deadline for members to vote in the election.

Ballots with names of nominees have been mailed out to the chamber membership.

The school board, the school administration, the PTA, the Community Concert Board, and a special committee have been working out means to make the purchase of an instrument a possibility. FROM THE CANYON RIM

Lt. Col. George Walton, a planning officer in the Selective Service national headquarters, this week gave out with some illuminating facts about mental and physical fitness of the country's youth.

He laid the problem directly at the feet of the nation's educators.

"In World Wars I and II the combined rate for rejections of all kinds was about 30 percent," said Col. Walton, writing this week in a national publication. "Since then the situation has worsened drastically. During the Korean War 37 percent of the men registered for the draft were rejected. From the end of that war through 1961 the figure was 49 percent. For the last year alone it was 53 percent. This May it jumped to 56 percent. And in June, the last month for which complete figures are available, the armed forces were forced to reject more than 9,000 of the 16,000 men who reported for preinduction examination—a rejection rate of 58 percent, the all-time high."

Col. Walton said the fact is that to an appalling degree we are physically flabby and functionally illiterate and are becoming more so.

He told of one young man with 14 years of formal "education" who could not even meet the minimum standards of competence in the Armed Forces Qualification Test.

On the test potential soldiers are asked 100 questions and some of them are real toughies. There is a sentence on one of the tests which states thusly, "It was a small table," and the person being tested is asked whether "sturdy", or "round" or "cheap" or "little" is most like the word "small" used in the sentence.

The boys are even asked to add 20, 10 and 15 and given a multiple choice. A boy can pass by answering as few as 22 questions.

Col. Walton concludes that a frightening number of youngsters, clutching high school diplomas and some with evidence of even higher scholastic achievement, simply cannot read or even solve the most simple mathematical problems.

He said many of the youngsters, through further testing, are shown to be illiterate but quite intelligent.

He said the most notable trend for rejection on the physical side is overweight.

Why, with more knowledge readily available, with plush school facilities and ready cash for education, are our youngsters growing up more ignorant than the generations of the one-room school house?

We certainly do not wish to indict the school system. We believe it is symptomatic of our times. We believe the majority of our people (children and adults) are unwilling to turn from their pleasure and entertainment and accept the discipline required by learning. Learning never was conceived as entirely pleasant.

Education, like law enforcement, cannot be imposed in greater quantity or quality than the people themselves are willing to accept.

If we would change our educational system we first must change our hearts.

John Masterman, city editor for the Globe-Times, has just been appointed administrative

by Dr. J. A. Hill

Hilltop Views

A few days ago my attention was called to an article by Morris K. Udall in the Oct. 1 issue of The New Republic, the subject being Where's The Welfare State. Udall is a Congressman from Arizona.

I have seen and heard so much about our definite trend toward socialism, which is often erroneously represented as a prelude to communism, that I was becoming a little scared myself. But, as is often said, there are two sides to every question, and Congressman Udall presents a rebuttal to the idea that we are trending toward the welfare state.

The article is based on an analysis of the national budget as published by the Budget Bureau in pamphlet form in January 1962.

According to the Congressman, the budget breaks down into two categories: (1) military and (2) civil. Each of these categories is then broken down into units, such as (for the military) national defense, space research and technology, interest on the public debt, international affairs and finance, and veterans' services and benefits.

According to Udall's statement, derived from the annual report of the Budget Bureau, the nation will have spent in 1962 $72.8 billion or 70 cents of the tax dollar, for "defense, diplomacy, and past wars."

Here we quote: "Education-federal aid for college housing and academic buildings, college scholarships, the National Defense Education Act, federal impact aid, the National Science Foundation, libraries and museums--$1.5 billion.

"Labor and manpower service--on-the-job training, unemployment compensation, policing labor unions, US Employment Services, etc. $0.3 billion. "School lunch and milk program--$0.3 billion.

Vocational rehabilitation, etc.--program for returning about 110,000 disabled and handicapped persons to gainful employment --$0.2 billion

Total "Welfare State" expenditures (7 cents of the tax dollar) $6.6 billion"

Congressman Udall then points out that for 1963 "we will spend 7 per cent of our federal budget for programs that are often described in this manner" (socialistic). He then asks, "How does this compare with former years?"

He had obtained, he said, from the Library of Congress a copy of the fiscal 1939 budget. It showed that in that year we spent 44 per cent (not 7 as in 1963) of our budget for labor and welfare programs. "In 1939 we spent $30 per capita on these programs. In fiscal 1963, using the 1939 dollar to provide a fixed basis of comparison, we will spend $16 per capita for these same programs.

"The brutal fact is that in the past 24 years 'welfare state' programs have withered to little more than half their prewar level.

"In 1939 this nation had 130 million people. Today we have 186 million. That we should be spending today less, in terms of 1939 dollars than we spent 24 years ago is a startling revelation. Considering the 56 per cent decline in the purchasing value of the dollar since 1939 we will spend this year, in 1939 dollars, slightly over $3 billion dollars for labor, health, education and welfare. In 1939 with 56 million fewer people, we spent nearly $4 billion. A housewife with nine children isn't expected to keep her grocery bill to the level set by her neighbor with six children, and yet that is what we as a nation have been doing. We have actually cut back our total expenditures as our population has grown.

"In 1939 our federal debt per person was $1,900. Today it is down to $1,600. In 1946 out of every thousand persons in the United States, 19 were civilian employees of the federal government. Today that number has dropped to 13, and six of these are civilian employees of the armed forces."

Another startling and very significant fact which Mr. Udall points out has to do with our debt. Personally, it has disturbed me every time I have thought about it. Hence, the following statement comes as an eye-opener.

"I doubt whether many realize that between 1946 and 1960---the federal debt grew just 6 per cent while state-local debt grew 328 per cent and private debt 278 per cent. Even more startling is the fact that, whereas private debt in this country was well below the federal debt in 1946, it now is more than double the federal debt."

With reference to socialism whose goal is "from each according to ability; to each according to need", which implies an economic leveling, Mr. Udall gives what he calls some pertinent facts, as follows:

"The United States, with six per cent of the world's population (See HILLTOP, Page 3).

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Atkins of Big Spring came to Canyon Monday and took his mother, Mrs. G. B. Combs, home with them to see their new son, Richard Craige. He was born December 3.

Dr. Joe Markham, our vet friend, tells the story of a dog in a Texas city that returned on its own hook time after time to a veterinarian for treatment after its master had taken it there once.

The dog found its way through heavy city traffic to the animal clinic. It would make the trip alone through city traffic upon orders from its master. Dr. Joe says he was told the story by one of his college teachers who was the vet involved.

The dog would enter the animal hospital and walk unbidden to the treatment table, hop on the table and wait for service.

When the treatment was finished, the dog would return home. Dr. Joe says the dog was trailed on several occasions and there never was anything to indicate that it was guided by anything but its own intelligence.

Famous Fight In 'Miracle Worker'

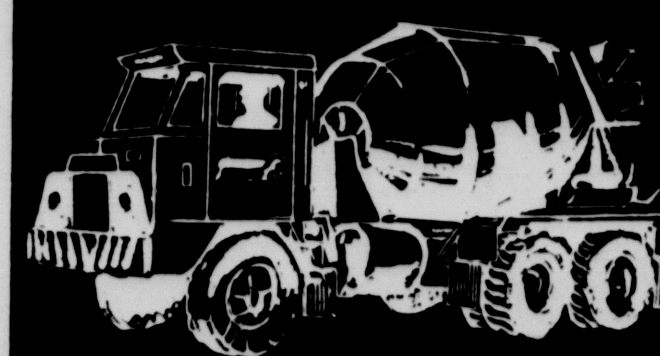

This famous fight-scene between Anne Bancroft and Patty Duke is a highlight of "The Miracle Worker," the unusual movie opening Sunday at the Varsity Theatre, through United Artists release. For over a year on Broadway, the same two stars padded knees, elbows and other sensitive areas of anatomy, then threw themselves into the roles and around the stage. The scene lasted from eight to twelve minutes depending upon audience reaction and their own involvement. For its re-creation on the screen, Arthur Penn, who also conceived and directed the stage-fight, utilized the mobility of the cameras to heighten this rough-and-tumble battle symbolizing a tough and tender teacher's victory over the animal-like fury of a desperately trapped girl. This is the personal life story of Helen Keller.

I am not in position to confirm or deny Mr. Udall's statistical data, but they appear to be well documented. If he is right the American people have cause to improve their morale.

Touring Buffalo Cagers Drop Two Games On Road

BY MIKE MOON

Two formidable foes rated in the nation's top twenty basketball teams humbled the West Texas State basketball team Saturday and Monday on a disastrous two-game road trip.

Last Saturday, Drake University of Des Moines, Iowa, defeated the Buff cagers 97-54 before 4500 Drake supporters after falling behind 17-2 early in the game.

Last Monday night, Coach Metz LaFollette's squad was drubbed by a strong Creighton University team from Omaha, Nebraska. Creighton's Bluejays overwhelmed WT 90-65 after monopolizing the backboards and using a balanced scoring attack.

West Texas meets Midwestern's Indians in a return match Monday at Wichita Falls in the last game of the home and home series with that school.

Against Creighton, the Buffs were on the short end of a small deficit early in the first half but the Bluejays' highly superior rebounding dominated the game.

The Bluejays outbounded the Buffs by a 69-39 edge. Creighton is also listed among the nation's top 20 teams by both Associated Press and United Press International polls.

Control of the ball gave the opposition a quick 54-28 lead with All-American candidate, Paul Silas, 6-7, leading the way for Creighton. Silas tallied 19 points to lead the game's scoring efforts although four of his teammates also scored in double figures.

For the second straight game, Vernon Welch paced the Buffs' scoring with 18 points. Welch tallied 17 points against Drake for the locals top effort. WT's 6-8 pivot man, Frank Schaffer, scored 15 points and Steve Slagle 10 for other top efforts.

Coach LaFollette's hopes of a victory or at least a better showing were dimmed by the loss of 6-7 postman Scottie Pierce who was averaging 16.5 points per game going into the Creighton fray. Pierce drew four fouls early in the first half and sat out the last five minutes of the first half. After starting the second half, Pierce left the game via the foul route with only four minutes gone.

Against Drake Saturday, the Buffs were behind 4-2 with 1:25 gone in the game and soon found themselves on the short end of a 17-3 deficit after a disastrous eight-minute scoring drought. Drake never let up and led at halftime 41-21 after showing off its stout defense.

Again the Buffs were drastically outbounded, this time by a 64-42 margin. Leading the way was 6-10 center Larry Prins who tallied 19 points for the game's high honors and also grabbed the lion's share of the rebounds.

Other Buffs hitting the double figures' column were Schaffer and Pierce with identical 12 point totals. After Bobby Roland, 6-5, and Pierce fouled out in the second half, the scoring load was placed upon the tall shoulders of Schaffer who came through for 12 of WT's final 14 points.

We got wind of a rumor that there was some dickering going on between WT and Arkansas for a game in the Cotton Bowl Stadium. We talked to Razorback Athletic Director Barnhill about it. He was guarded but left the impression that there had been some talk.

He said he doesn't have an open date until 1966.

Canyon Trips Friona 36 To 18 In Cage Tilt

Canyon High School cagers bounced back to beat Friona 36 to 18 Tuesday night after a thorny tournament path over the week end.

In the Friona game, the Eagles grabbed a first quarter lead of 9 to 3 and maintained it throughout the contest. The score was 20 to 9 at half time and 27 to 17 at the end of the third period.

Canyon girls lost to the Friona lasses 58 to 21. High pointer for Canyon was Kaydean Barnard with 7 points.

The Eagles found tough sledding right off in the Plainview tournament. They lost 63 to 54 to McAdoo. McAdoo went on to defeat Plainview 77 to 68 in the finals.

Begert was high point man in that contest with 23 tallies to his credit. He stood out both on offense and defense.

McAdoo grabbed the lead in the opening quarter 14 to 11, was ahead 37 to 24 at the half but Canyon had narrowed the lead 47-44 by the end of the third period.

The Eagles ripped Littlefield 68 to 33 in the opening round of the consolation bracket and again Begert scored 23 points to pace his team. Eddie Poole did a fine job in that contest. He was great on rebounds and scored 10 points of his team's total.

The Eagles lost in the finals of the consolation round--a 59 to 57 squeaker to Lockney. The score was 12 to 12 at end of the first period, 28-21 in favor of Canyon at the half, 41-44 in favor of Canyon at the end of the third quarter and then the Longhorns pulled ahead in the closing stanza.

The Canyon boys play Happy at 3:30 o'clock today in the Tulia tournament.

The boys and girls teams will play at Dimmitt next

Gus Miller Speaker At CHS Cage Booster Meet

More than 150 persons attended the Canyon Eagle Booster Club basketball rally Monday night at the high school auditorium.

Coach Allen Simpson introduced members of the Junior and Senior High girl and boy basketball teams.

Roscoe Richardson, booster club president, announced that the club would raise enough money to buy equipment for taking pictures of basketball games. Anyone wishing to make a donation was invited to do so.

Coach Jeep Webb announced that season tickets for the nine Eagle home basketball games are available. The price is $5.00. These tickets may be purchased at the high school.

The meeting closed with yells led by high school cheer leaders. Next meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock next Monday night in the high school cafeteria.

Buff Cagers To Wichita

Coach Metz LaFollette's varsity basketball team travels to Wichita Falls Monday for an early finish to West Texas State Midwestern University two-game match.

The Buffs won the first game in the WT Field House recently 89-75 and will play in the Indians territory Monday on a home-and-home basis.

The next home game for WT will be Dec. 22 when far away Idaho State University travels to Canyon. Meanwhile, the WT Freshman team, tutored by Coach Ray Musgrave, engages Lubbock Christian College on Monday.

The Buffs will clash with McMurry at Abilene Tuesday night.

WT Frosh Lose 86-75 To Trinidad Quintet

Trinidad Junior College's little Richard Tate scored 20 of his total 31 points in the second half and the West Texas State Freshman basketball team couldn't match the effort in absorbing an 86-75 loss Saturday night in the WT Field House.

Tate scored six straight points to pull his team from a 54-54 tie with 12:25 remaining in the second half and the Frosh never could catch up and, at one time, fell behind by 12 points in a game which was close up until the time Tate broke loose.

Trinidad placed sixth in the national junior college finals last year and their coach, Bill Clifton, tells that they have a much better team than the 1961-62 version.

Prolific Marvin Mitchell of Detroit was once again the high scorer for the WT Frosh with 20 points. The 6-2 marksman averaged 31 points per game while playing high school ball and equalled his average when the Freshmen met South Plains Junior College in their previous game.

After being behind for the greater part of the first half, the Frosh sparked their attack with a working fast break and came from a nine-point deficit to a tie at 22-all with 8:10 remaining in the first half.

From that point to the end of the half, the game was tied six times and the lead changed hands three other times while Trinidad controlled the lead most of the time aside from being tied occasionally until WT's 5-10 Guard Gail Simpson from Borger hit a field goal with one second remaining to give the Frosh a 42-41 intermission edge.

Booster Club Meets Monday

Eagle Booster Club will continue to hold meetings as basketball boosters.

The club wound up the football season this week by having the football team as guests of honor. Films of the Dalhart bi-district game were shown.

The club expressed appreciation to Charlie Donnell for painting booster signs on downtown windows before the bi-district game and to merchants for permitting the signs to be painted in their windows.

Next meeting of the club will be held at 7:30 o'clock Monday night in the high school auditorium. Boys' and girls' basketball teams of both junior and senior high schools will be guests of honor.

A program has been arranged for the meeting.

week from Strauss Atkinson, pastor.

Principal speaker for the occasion will be Bill Glass, professional football player for the Cleveland Browns.

Glass is billed as an outstanding Christian athlete. Tickets for the occasion are on sale in the church office at $2.50 each.

Banquet To Honor Buffs

A football banquet honoring members and coaching staff of the Buffalo football team will be held at 7 o'clock next Tuesday night at Fellowship Hall at First Baptist Church.

Referring to a report by the city engineer, York said the city water well situation is in good shape, but that as the city grows, more water will be needed. The city presently has ten water wells.

In final action the city commission voted to appoint A.W. Lair as the new city attorney subject to his acceptance.

The city hall will hold open house all day the last Friday before Christmas. Free coffee and donuts will be served. The open house will be for all city employees and to the general public.

Bill York and city and county officers were all on hand at the scene to render aid in reviving the unconscious woman and to handle the hundreds of curious college students who crowded around the off-campus restaurant, blocking traffic and creating a traffic hazard.

City Manager Bill York said he didn't see how the city got along in such emergencies before they got the new resuscitator for the fire department. "It undoubtedly saved the woman's life," he said. "That alone makes it worth its $500 cost," York added.

City Fire Captain Joe Rice said this was the first real test for the resuscitator because it was the first time it was used on an emergency with any hope of reviving the victim.

The accidental asphyxiation death last week of a West Texas State College student was not considered a fair test of the unit by city authorities because of the overly long time the student was exposed to poisonous fumes before emergency aid was called to the scene of the accident.

In other action for the Emergency Unit last week, a call was answered to Don's Restaurant where a woman had collapsed from what attending medical authorities called physical exhaustion. The resuscitator was not used.

He said the Canyon team worked hard to win this competition. "We are very proud of the boys. This is the first time in several years that we have even gotten to the state competitions much less win third place in state," he said.

New Carton Introduced

Cloverlake Dairy Foods this week announced installation of new automatic packaging equipment for forming and filling the new "Bright Plastic," disposable Pure-Pak milk cartons, according to A. P. Garrett and H. W. Garrett, Jr., officials of the company.

They said the new "Bright Plastic" cartons will be available in the one-half gallon size beginning Tuesday, December 11 and that additional new equipment will be installed within a few weeks for packaging the "Bright Plastic" cartons in quart, pint and one-half sizes.

ment will be installed within a few weeks for packaging the "Bright Plastic" cartons in quart, pint and one-half sizes.

At the same time, they invited the public to inspect the new automatic packaging machine which they described as a miracle of automation. The machine automatically forms the cartons from a flat blank seconds before filling, and seals in the sanitary pouring spout.

Truett Hull will take the contralto formations and Mrs. William R. Wilson in conjunction with Mrs. Bruce Winn will sing soprano.
Mrs. H. R. Fulton will sing mezzo soprano.

Mrs Harley Adams

HAS BEEN SELECTED BY ANDERSON APPLIANCE AS

DECEMBER HOUSEWIFE OF THE MONTH

Anderson Appliance is honored to present Mrs. Harley Adams as December Housewife of the month. Pictured with Mrs. Adams are her three beautiful daughters, Sherri, age 7, Kerri, age 1, and Terri, age 2.

Harley, Mrs. Adams' husband is employed at McBroom Service station.

The Adams reside at 1407 9th Ave., where they have only recently moved. They have been residents of Canyon for the past three years.

As you enter the kitchen of the Adams' home the striking feature is the beautiful new Frigidaire combination Frost Proof refrigerator.

Mrs. Adams chose her Frigidaire Frost-Proof to end all the drudgery of defrosting and the size refrigerator and freezer to meet her family's needs. In looking more closely you find a clever idea of Mrs. Adams--she had Andy install a built in lock on the bottom freezer door to keep busy little hands out of the ice cubes. The ice ejector located on the door is even convenient for one and two year olds. "I just love my Frost-Proof Frigidaire," says Mrs. Adams.

"And I wouldn't trade my Frigidaire Washer for any other brand. It washes my clothes cleaner and whiter than anything. With my family it has done many a washing without any trouble whatsoever. I have never received better service with my appliances. They are really wonderful."

If you are shopping for an appliance go by Anderson Appliance and talk your problem over with Andy. You are sure to find the right appliance for you.

Be sure you drop in to Anderson Appliance at 1515 4th Ave. soon.

TELEPHONE TALK

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTS

Know who made the first Christmas tree lights? Well, considering the name of this column, the answer shouldn't be too much of a surprise—a telephone man. Here's how it happened:

Back in the early 1900's, Ralph E. Morris' little boy crawled under the Christmas tree, upset one of the wax candles and singed his hair. Morris promptly announced there would never be another flame near a Christmas tree in his house. Then, he got to thinking and remembered the switchboard down at the telephone office and how, at certain times of the day, it often reminded him of a Christmas tree.

So what did he do but buy several dozen switchboard lamps which he then soldered to wires to make a string of lights. He used colored paper to cover the lamps, and so it was—the first electric lights on a Christmas tree!

TOO BAD YOU CAN'T FIND IT THERE

I read the other day about an unusual message that resulted when a storm tore away part of a Christmas billboard greeting. Underneath the greeting, part of a Yellow Pages billboard was revealed. The combined message of the two boards was "Peace on earth -- find it fast in the Yellow Pages."

Well, you can find a lot of things in the Yellow Pages and save yourself a lot of time and walking. It's just too bad the Yellow Pages can't lead us to that most wonderful commodity...peace.

SAFETY FIRST

The approaching Holiday Season will cause many persons to be traveling so Christmas may be spent with loved ones. I want to suggest that all persons exercise caution and keep the safety of all in mind.

Being safety conscious during your holiday activities may mean the difference between a joyous and pleasant time and you or your loved ones being a statistic in the accident reports for the 1962 Christmas Holidays.

I want to wish each and everyone a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS and A HAPPY and PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

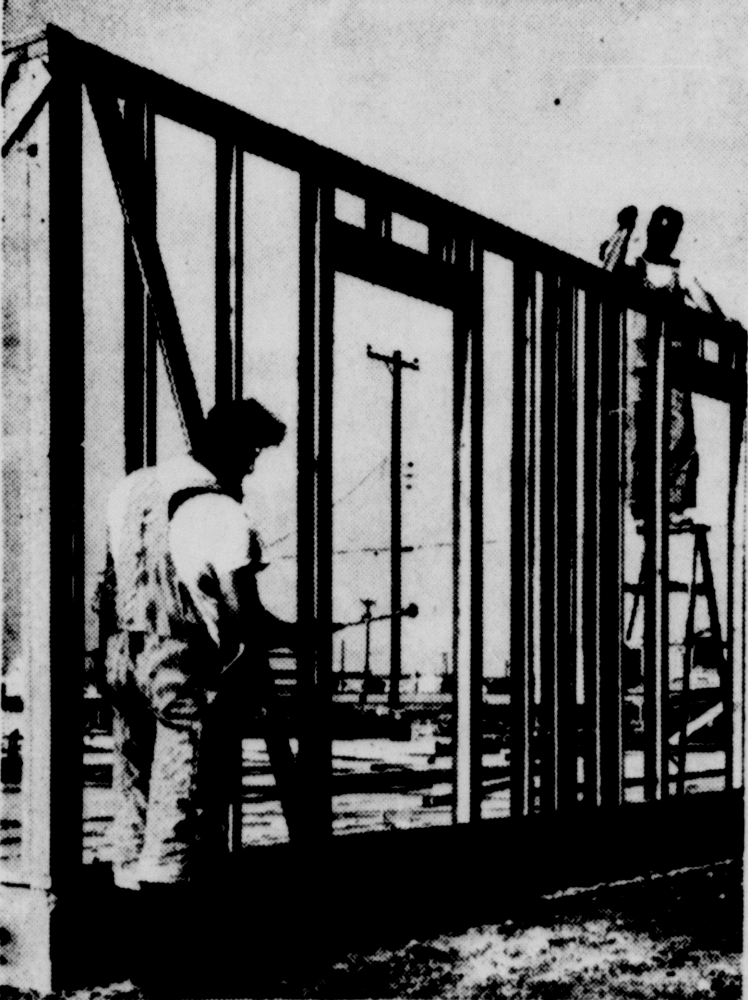

ONE LAST THOUGHT

The surest way to have happiness and peace of mind is to give them to someone else.

Happy holidays from all of us...The Telephone Office.

Symphonic Theater First Phase Nears Completion

"I'd like folks to know that granddaddy helped to pioneer this land."

These words accompanied a check from a cattleman to the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation for a memorial to be placed in the outdoor theater in Palo Duro Canyon, the first phase of which is nearing completion, according to Mrs. Ples Harper, president of the symphonic drama project.

"These words are representative of the feeling of many descendants of the founders of the Panhandle," Mrs. Harper said, "and in response to it a uniquely suitable and enduring plan has been formulated to commemorate the memory of those first comers."

"On the blueprint of the theater - of which incidentally, 5 rows of the concrete seating platform have already been poured - a handsome entrance promenade is designated, which everyone must use in passing from the ticket office to the seating area. This promenade is flanked by a huge map of the Panhandle, marked with historical sites and cattle brands. On other great tablets will appear the memorial names, by county, with the occupation of the person memorialized and the year in which they settled there."

"In addition to these memorials, which will represent a gift of $500, many other gifts or memorials of greater or lesser amounts may be donated," Mrs. Harper said. "A garden club or group of people from one area interested in gardening, might wish to underwrite all or part of the cost of landscaping the approaches to the theater, others the building of the concession stand, dressing rooms, lighting or what have you."

Also, there will be seats, each costing $200, on which a donor may wish to have his name or that of one of his forebears inscribed. Plaques will be permanently attached to each unit donated, with the name of the donor or that of the person memorialized. Thus, the theater itself will incorporate within its structure, symbols of the history which will be dramatized on the stage.

The script of the play with music to be produced in the theater is well on its way to completion, according to Paul Green, author, who has fathered numerous similar productions some having run as many as 19 years. Isaac Van Grove, Hollywood composer, is collaborating with Green on the score.

"We are urging those interested in making donations for memorials," Mrs. Harper said, "to get them in before December 30th, since they are tax deductible. And with the monies in hand, in January the building committee will be able to determine how much of the original plan can be completed this spring. We don't want to borrow." Building is progressing much faster than anticipated according to R.C. Neely, building committee chairman. Other members of the committee are B.R. Barfield, Jack Little, Raymond Raillard and Crannell Tolliver.

For information regarding the theater, membership and memorials, write The Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc., Box 268, Canyon, Texas.

Pack 97 will have a Christmas party tonight at 7:30 in Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church. Dens 3 and 6 have made a Mexican pinata which holds about 15 lbs of candy. This pinata will be broken by the Webelos den and each child present will join the scramble for candy.

Den 1 went shopping last Wed. along with Den Mother Mrs. Wayne Wirt. The boys bought supplies for the Christmas gifts they are making. Refreshments were served by Neil Currie.

Den 2 made Santa Claus faces with plastic bleach bottles. Johnny Barrett, was a camera bug taking pictures for his scout log book. Refreshments were furnished by Cliff Prichard. Den 3 worked on the Christmas gifts they are making and will present to their parents tonight.

Den 4 made plans to visit Boys' Ranch, Dec. 17. They will take a sack lunch and spend the day on the ranch. The boys will have a den party next Monday at the home of Mrs. Hicks.

Den 5 worked on the gifts Kenny Angel, served chocolate pie as refreshments. Sounds yummy.

Den 6 completed Christmas gifts and made plans for the pack meeting. New Bobcats Ronnie Cates and Perry Masterson were given the grand howl.

Pack 131 Den 1 went on a hike and gathered yucca and devil claws for tree decorations. They sprayed these with paint then glittered them.

Den 2 made tree decorations. Jim Hand furnished the refreshments.

Den 3 made gifts and some of the boys brought the games they are making at home.

Den 4 went to the Canyons and picked out a large Christmas tree which the Pack will use at the meeting. Den Dads Newton Richardson and Jess Stipe took the boys. The boys are making a Christmas display. Jeffery Brown served refreshments.

Den 5 made tray favors for the hospital. These boys also know how to say Merry Christmas in Spanish. They made Mexican luminaries for the pack meeting.

Prairie Wildlife

Ducks, ducks and more ducks. The lake is loaded with them! The last cold snap really brought the quackers in to roost on Buffalo Lake during the last week. We went out that way this week for a look see and there they were.

Bob Brown, the manager of the refuge counted them for us Monday morning and he said there were better than 200,000 ducks and about 10,000 geese. We didn't ask how he counted that many waterfowl, but we assume he is pretty accurate.

The 200,000 ducks is a 100,000 increase in just one week. Bob said the cold weather and the opening of the hunting season has brought the birds in.

Bob said until now the birds have been coming and going with great regularity, but that they are beginning to settle down for a rest.

He tells us that the record number of ducks on the lake at any one time has been about one million birds. That was in 1959, he said. The yearly average is about one-half million. Bob adds that he is hopeful that there will be at least that many ducks on the refuge by Christmas. After that they start thinning out again as they migrate farther south.

They should start back on their long range to the north along about late March or May, as the lakes and pot holes clear of ice and feed becomes available, Bob said.

He said that he has several reports that the hunters are getting some geese around the refuge. The late cool weather has got them feeding pretty well, he said and the hunters are getting some good shots. Bob said his boys have picked several cripples on the refuge, which would indicate that at least some of the geese are being hit when shot at.

Something of interest to all Randall County sportsmen and conservationists took place this week. Several of the local hunters and the government conservationists got together last Friday to discuss the formation of a Sportsman's Club in Randall County to get all the hunters, fishermen and outdoor type individuals together in one shooting match.

The general idea of the club as it was batted around at the discussion was to provide a common meeting ground for the sportsmen of the area to swap lies and keep up with what is going on in the area outdoors-wise.

Other advantages would be game supper, discussions and talks with movies by wildlife and conservation experts and occasional conservation projects.

One of the main advantages to area sportsmen from such a club would be their increased voice with state and federal agencies concerning wildlife and recreation areas.

The possibility of becoming affiliated with a state sportsmen's club was also mentioned. The group decided to meet again and develop a definite program to present at an open house meeting to be held about McDowell, include the widow of the home address; two other daughters, Mrs. J. W. Carlton of Stamford and Mrs. Everett Willard of Garland; a brother, H. V. Kelly, Snyder; four step-brothers, a step-sister and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. McDowell was with her father before his death and remained with her mother a few days after the funeral.

the third week in January. At that time all area sportsmen and conservationists will be invited to attend, listen to the suggestions of the group and vote on whether they want to form such a club and if so what its purposes, by-laws, etc., will be.

This writer has been astonished at the number of serious hunters, fishermen, conservationists and boondockers in general in the area. There are certainly more outdoorsmen in the Canyon area per capita than any comparable area we know about. We were further surprised that there wasn't already an active sportsmen's club here.

In case you're interested, the members of that initial study group for the sportsmen's club were Dr. Busted from the college; L.J. Witkowski (we think most everyone knows Wit); John Brazzil, Randall County Agent; Stan McDonough, Texas Game and Fish Commission officer and Bob Brown, manager of the Buffalo Lake Federal Wildlife Refuge out Umbarger way. We were there too, with our ever present notebook and pencil.

Speaking of the refuge, Brown and his assistant, Lee gave a wildlife film presentation to the Wagon Wheel 4-H Club at their meeting last Tuesday evening at the Randall County Junior Livestock Building in Canyon.

Brown is scheduled to give another wildlife presentation at another 4-H meeting to be held next Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. in the livestock building.

County Agent John Brazzil said the public is welcome to attend the 4-H meetings and hear Brown's presentation.

Quail hunting is holding pretty close to our predictions--spotty. We've talked to some hunters who have had a good hunt after the little speedsters and we have talked to some others who haven't had much luck at all. The opinion seems to be that if you are hunting off the caprock with well trained

Cleland Services Are Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Nettie Louise Cleland, 80, were held in LaGrone Funeral Chapel December 3 at 3 p.m. with Bob Wear, minister of the Canyon Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery.

Mrs. Cleland, who lived at 1811 Third Avenue, died December 2 at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

She was born August 25, 1882, in The Grove, Coryell County. John S. Cleland in Coryell in 1909, and they moved to Canyon in 1925. Her husband preceded her in death in July of 1945.

She was a member of the Central Church of Christ of Canyon, and the Order of the Eastern Star.

Pall bearers were Wayne McNeill, Hampton Lisle, Ferrell Abbott, Dr. J. B. Roberts, Levi Cole, and W. A. Warren.

Relatives include two sons, Sam M. Cleland, College Station, Texas, and Bruce Cleland, Amarillo; two daughters, Mrs. Louis Halliburton, Vega, Texas, and Mrs. Anita Frank Amarillo; and nine grandchildren.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

H. M. (Flip) Breedlove, County Agricultural Agent of Donley County at Clarendon will be the judge for the steer show in Randall County in January. Flip is recognized in the southwest as one of the top Agents in beef cattle work. He will handle the steers in two breed classes; Angus and Herefords.

Now is the time to take soil tests. Farmers who plan to apply fertilizer to crops in 1963 could well invest two dollars, the cost of a test, in greater fertilizer efficiency.

The laboratory operated by the Texas A & M College Extension Service in Lubbock is staffed by a well trained scientist, James H. Valentine. He will conduct the tests and make a recommendation for fertilizer application for each crop grown.

The results of research work conducted with our types of soils are well known to Valentine. He will recommend fertilizer elements not sufficiently supplied by the soil.

Farmers are urged to make sure the soil is sampled adequately and to fill out the information sheet that goes in with each soil sample.

The Randall County members of the High Plains Water Conservation District are Harold Bryan, A. C. Evers, J. R. Parker, Lewis Tuck, and Ed Wieck. This board meets in the Randall County Farm Bureau Office on the first Monday night of each month to care for district business. One of the main things handled by this board is to issue drilling permits for irrigation wells located in the water district of Randall County.

Saturday night, December 15 will be the Randall County 4-H Achievement Program. On this date members who were selected by their record judging to receive recognition for the past year's work will be so recognized. This event is held once each year to give all members and their parents a chance to come together to honor the outstanding 4-H youngsters in Randall County.

Scouters Schedule Pot Luck

The annual pot luck supper of the Randall District Committee of the Llano Estacado Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the Canyon Elementary School Cafeteria.

The purpose of the annual affair is to recognize outstanding units and individuals for their accomplishments during the past year. The highest honor of the evening will be the presentation of Eagle neckerchiefs to several young men of the community.

Randall District is composed of three Cub Scout Packs, three Boy Scout Troops, and two Explorer Posts in Canyon, plus one Cub Scout Pack and one Boy Scout Troop in Happy.

All unit leaders, parents, and scouts from the Canyon and Happy organizations are invited to attend. Each family is requested to bring food, which will be spread together, and their own place settings for eating. Drinks will be provided.

The Randall District conducts this annual affair on a covered dish basis rather than a ticket banquet basis in the hope that more of the families will be able to attend.

Randall County members will be competing in several livestock shows in 1963. They have entered animals in the show at Odessa, Canyon, Amarillo, Fort Worth, and El Paso. The results of the show at Canyon on January 11-12 will help some of the boys decide their future chances in larger shows.

Plant quarantine inspectors of the U. S. Department of Agriculture stopped an inbound pest at U. S. ports of entry once every 16 minutes during 1962. Among the intercepted pests were some of the world's most damaging insects and plant diseases.

A total of 33,033 pests of quarantine significance—foreign insects, mites, snails, nematodes, and plant diseases—were found in passenger baggage, ships' stores, mail and cargo by inspectors of USDA Agricultural Research Service during the past year.

The West Texas State Concert Band, under the annual Christmas concert, Sunday at 3 p.m. direction of Dr. Ted Crager, will present its in the auditorium of the Fine Arts Building.

Buffalo Band Concert Is Slated Dec. 16

A concert, open to the public, will be presented Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building auditorium by the Concert Band of West Texas State College.

The 140-piece band, directed by Dr. Ted J. Crager, will present a program ranging from Christmas music to Gershwin's "American in Paris." Dr. Crager will be assisted by Gerald Hemphill, associate director of bands, and Rowie Durden, assistant professor of music.

During an intermission a men's glee club of Phi Mu Alpha national music fraternity, will sing a selection written by Royal Brantley, assistant professor and director of the group. It is titled "There is a Beautiful Star."

Included in the band's repertoire are "Concertina for Percussion" by Clifton Williams, "Beatrice et Benedict" by Berliza, "Sea Songs March" by Ralph Vaughan-Williams,

Postal Receipts Are Rising Here

Marion Higdon, Postmaster of the Canyon Post Office, said that gross receipts for the calendar year to date are some $7000 higher than for the comparable period last year.

He added that Christmas business has started a little earlier this year than it did last year which has spread "Symphonic Songs" by Robert Benet, "Christmas Festival" by LeRoy Anderson, "Val Dres March" by Hassen, and "Christmas Song" by Torme and Wells.

Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, will sing a selection, and will join the men's glee club in presenting a final number.

the Christmas mail load over several weeks instead of the last several days of the Christmas season.

He said the Post Office certainly appreciates the early mailing which will help get packages and cards to their destinations before Christmas.

Canyon Woman Injured

A Canyon woman was injured about 3 pm Sunday in a two-car crash at the intersection of NE 24th and the Fritch Highway just outside Amarillo city limits.

Nelda Dorrough, 25, wife of Captain Aaron Dorrough, an assistant professor of Military Science at West Texas State College, was injured in the accident. She was treated at St. Anthony's Hospital and released Sunday.

Captain Dorrough said Monday that she was home and in fair condition.

Canyon FFA Group Enjoys Tour

Canyon High School FFA Team enjoyed an extensive tour of North and East Texas last week when they attended the state-wide Future Farmers of America Leadership Contest in Huntsville.

Leon Bagwell, CHS vocational agriculture instructor said the boys left Canyon last Thursday for Huntsville. They stayed the night in Mexia, where they met the vocational agriculture instructor of Mexia High School and gave the Mexia FFA boys a demonstration of FFA leadership.

Bagwell said the boys enjoyed giving the demonstration and it was a good workout for the competitions in Huntsville.

While competing in the state-wide leadership competitions the Canyon boys toured the sights in and around Huntsville, one of the more historic East Texas communities.

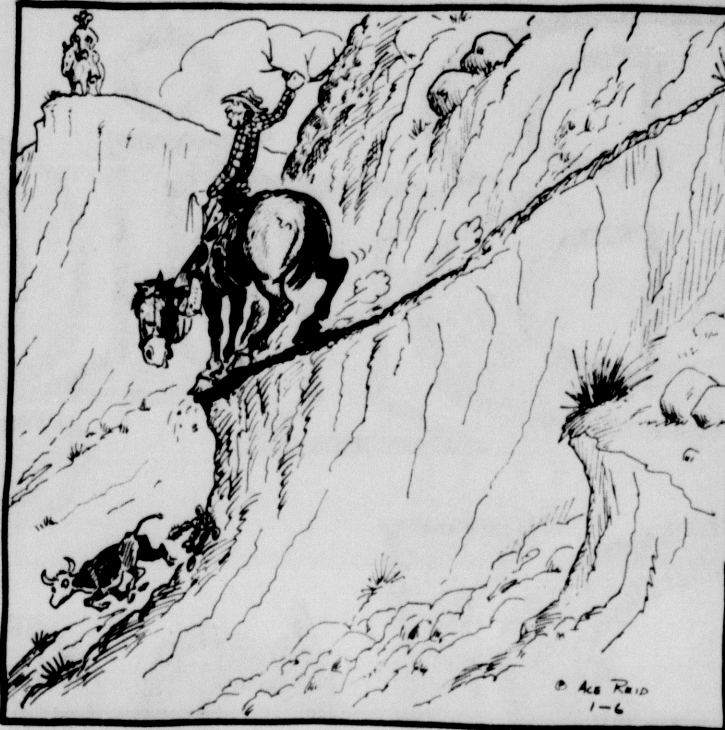

The boys toured the Sam Houston Library and Museum and later the Huntsville State Park where they were impressed with the lakes and tall pines of the region.

The Canyon boys also toured the Huntsville State Prison at Huntsville where they saw the prison rodeo grounds. The boys saw from a distance the State Prison For Women.

Bagwell said the boys stayed in Dallas on the way home from the contest. They got to see the tall buildings and sights there. Bagwell said the group enjoyed the trip.

Firemen Speak At Lions Club

Jack Haley, Canyon fire chief, and Joe Rice, fire captain, were guest speakers at the weekly meeting of the Lions Club held last Wednesday.

They spoke on the emergency corps of the Canyon Fire Department, and explained about the new station wagon that the department has recently acquired. The station wagon is fully equipped with all the modern first aid equipment, including the portable resuscitator, and is available for use anywhere in Randall County.

KEEPING UP WITH THE ARTS

As always every magazine is filled with ideas on gift giving or gift making. It is truly a season of wishful thinking!

There are so many "do-it-yourself" hints on making gifts that if you get "an-early-enough-start" you can come up with some real gems.

In the past year's magazines, you can find many pictures of Civil War soldiers, old maps and other early Americana. These were suitable for framing and look similar to a purchased print. There have been pictures of old cars, sailing vessels, scenic views, children's designs and a variety of other clipable material to frame. I feel everyone should have a large folder just for "things to save" during a whole year.

The fun in finding novel frames to suit each theme would be lots of fun. These clippings can be used for many other things, too. Covers for waste baskets, small boxes, trays, and collages can be made, to mention a few ideas.

The idea of covering boxes for giving and for storage is an old idea, but you can always add a new twist.

In the November House Beautiful, the main feature was "A Pretty System For Making Order In Your Closets." It is a most fascinating article and gives suggestions for covering boxes with wall papers, porous heavy papers, for gift-wrap and harder surfaced papers and for thin, porous papers, rice papers, and tissues.

The picture with the article only makes you wish that when you opened your closet doors that you could be greeted by a similar sight.

The writer suggests that the cover on each box be a catalog to what is inside, such as, pink gloves in a pink box, black gloves in a black box, and white ones in a white box. A striped bathing suit in a striped box and a floral print in a floral box. You can put accessories that go together in matched covered boxes.

There are many other ideas listed and ways of covering different shaped boxes.

Air Force Asks Help

Randall County Sheriff and Justice of the Peace offices received a letter Friday from the Amarillo Air Force Base Chief of Security and Law Enforcement, requesting county assistance in notification of Air Force authorities in the event of fatalities involving U.S. Armed Forces personnel.

Delivered in person by Air Policeman S/Sgt. Lovins of Amarillo Air Force Base, the letter included a plastic encased wallet-sized card of instruction for each of the sheriff's deputies and the county justice of the Peace. Each card instructed the carrier to notify the desk sergeant of the Air Police at the Amarillo Air Force base in the event of a fatality involving military personnel.

Church Group Has Hay Ride

The Junior High Fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church held a hay ride and weiner roast at the Sherwood Bladell home east of Canyon December 1.

The group rode in a hay-filled truck to the Bladell home, and held the weiner roast there. They then returned to the church where they played games.

Twelve young Presbyterians and their guests attended. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Nicholas are sponsors for the group.

AROUND THE TOWN (with kids)

As you know, two patrolmen are selected each week at the Elementary School. One is posted at the bike racks and the other is posted at the corner of 22nd street and 12th avenue. They are selected by improvement of citizenship grades.

Timothy Martin had his fourth birthday party Saturday afternoon. The guests broke a home-made piñata.

Last week there was a typographical error in the item about the P-TA meeting. It is Thursday, December 20, instead of December 15.

Girl Scout Planning Centers On Christmas

Girl Scout activities in Canyon for the month of December are centered around Troops 7 and 9, which are planning Christmas parties, and Troop 2, which held an overnight camping trip recently.

A Mother-Daughter tea will be given by the girls of Intermediate Troop 7 Tuesday, December 18, at 3:45 p.m. in the Girl Scout House. Two new girls in the troop will receive their Scout pins at this time. During the party, the girls will present their mothers with gifts which they made themselves in troop meetings. Troop leader is Mrs. Clifford Prichard.

Brownie Troop 9, under the leadership of Mrs. Bill Ormsby, will also hold their Christmas party in the Girl Scout House on Wednesday, December 19.

The girls will exchange gifts, and play games. At recent troop meetings, the members made Christmas pictures from old Christmas cards, jar rings, and ribbon, which they may use for gifts or for home decoration.

An overnight camping trip to Camp Kiwanis was taken by 15 girls from Intermediate Troop 2 on Friday, Nov. 30. The girls and their leaders, Mrs. Walter Cranmer and Mrs. Dean Nicholas, left Canyon Friday afternoon at 4:30, and returned Saturday at noon. Since the weather was too cool for camping outside, the group spent the night in Great Hall.

While at the camp, the girls hiked and worked on proficiency badges. Camp Kiwanis is the Girl Scout established camp located near Amarillo.
